

JAPANESE EXCLUSION BILL TO BECOME U. S. LAW

HUGHES TO OUTLINE COOLIDGE PLATFORM

NOTE SPEECH WILL BE GIVEN TUESDAY NIGHT

Secretary of State
Advises G. O. P. Convention In New York

Washington, April 15.—The first line of platform which Coolidge expects to go before
the party and ask to be returned to the House will be given in tonight by Charles Evans

Hughes. The secretary of state will be the keynote orator at the Republican state convention there. He will deliver a lengthy and prepared address, reviewing the three years of Republican administration in Washington and while it is essentially
Mr. Hughes speech it also bears the cryptic legend "C. C. C."

The president and his secretary of state had several conferences over the address and Mr. Coolidge has given his entire approval.
Republican leaders said today
there would be no embarrassments
in giving the Hughes speech, simply to that which followed the keynote of Senator Pepper, Republican of Pennsylvania before the Republican convention.

Pepper stirred up a hornet's nest
in Republican ranks by frankly characterizing the appointment of Mr. Daugherty as attorney general by the late President Harding as a "grave error in judgment."
Hughes replied to that speech
with a blistering statement, in which he declared such keynoting was a bad way to disrupt the party.
Other friends of the late president
also took umbrage and subsequently
the White House denied that Pepper's keynote effort had the ok of President Coolidge.

Mr. Hughes, it is understood, will not deal with specific instances or names in his handling of the Republican position toward the "scandals of Washington," but will contend himself with an explanation
and commendation of the measures
taken by President Coolidge to protect the public interest and insure honesty in government.

Stress will be laid, it is understood, on the achievements of the Republican party since it came in to power again on March 4, 1921—
the staff, the impending tax reduction, the arms conference, the British debt settlement and the stability
of America's foreign relations, both
in the western hemisphere and Europe.

That at least represents what the Coolidge managers believe should be the principal planks in the platform
which the Republican convention at Cleveland will write and adopt. The present business prosperity as compared with the depression of three years ago, constitutes a political asset that Republican leaders are insistent should be utilized to the fullest extent.

President Coolidge himself will do some keynoting next week when he goes to New York for the second speech he has made away from Washington since his inauguration.

PITTSBURGH FIRES CAUSE DAMAGE OF $700,000 TUESDAY

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 15.—Two fires
in the downtown district here today caused damage of $700,000 and were
with difficulty prevented from spreading to other buildings.

A blaze starting in the Penn Candy Company swept to the five story building occupied by the Dauler, Close and Johns Furniture Company on Seventh Avenue with $300,000 loss.

Fireman Valentine Leeb was seriously hurt when struck by an aerial ladder in a $400,000 blaze of three buildings at Third avenue and Ferry Street.

GIRL CONFESSES SHE ASSISTED IN ROBBERY

Findlay, O., April 15.—Fay Anderson, 25, and pretty, confessed to police here that she assisted Donald Tucker, 25, Negro, in the recent robbery of the Mt. Cory, bank.

She said she drove the automobile
which they made their getaway.

FERMENTATION OF GRAPE WINE IS BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF TWO IN OHIO

Stuebenville, O., April 15.—Fermentation of grape wine is believed to have caused the deadly fumes which took two lives and endangered the lives of four others in a Mingo Junction wine cellar early Monday.

Ohio mine inspectors, summoned
here to make a test of the fumes, enformed officials that the gasses were worse than blackdamp in mines and

SAY THAW'S RELEASE MENACE TO SOCIETY—FORMER WIFE IN COURT

Philadelphia, April 15.—At the opening of today's session of Harry K.
Thaw's sanity trial before a judge
and jury, Arthur G. Dickson, chief of defense counsel, opposing the Pittsburgh millionaire's release from Kirk-bride's asylum, resumed the line of attack by which the defense hopes to prove Stanford White's slayer is a moral defective, whose release into society would be a menace.

In this connection it became known that the countering objective of Thaw's counsel will be to prove that moral perversion is no basis for insanity in the state of Pennsylvania.

With the permission of Thaw's attorneys, Dr. Charles K. Mills, one of the world's most noted psychiatrists,
was recalled to the stand for cross examination.

Mills, enfeebled by old age, was helped into the witness stand by former Judge John M. Patterson, chief of Thaw's battery of lawyers.

Dickson again resorted to asylum
records dealing with Thaw's daily activities which stressed Thaw's excessive fondness for his pet rabbits. This data was compiled by Thaw's attendants. The following passage, read into the court record by Dickson, emphasized the purpose of defense counsel.

"For many weeks he (Thaw) has been engrossed in the care of his rabbits. He spends many hours fussing
over them, beating them, separating them, fondling them and taking great interest in their habits. Many times he has passed remarks on attractive women accosted on the grounds or seen on the outside. He spoke to children
with a flashing of his eyes."

"For many days he has been taking two rabbits into his room and keeping them overnight, chasing them
around in playful manner."

"This morning, the reference is to the morning of November 11, 1917, an attendant entered before breakfast
and found him disrobed without resist on his shoulder."

After living in different worlds for years, Evelyn Nesbit and Harry K.
Thaw will meet today in court.

When Thaw was first tried for the murder of Stanford White in New York, Evelyn Nesbit testified in his behalf.

Miss Nesbit is determined to go on the stand, if necessary and tell all she knows about Thaw's past in an effort
to prevent him from winning freedom
and his huge estate, which she claims
he will dissipate and thus deprive her fourteen-year-old son—Russell William Thaw of his paternal rights.

ELEVEN ARE EXECUTED
Mexico City, April 15.—Eleven members of the staff of General Antonio Villareal, former minister of agriculture, were executed by a federal firing squad at Ciudad Victoria, capital of Tampulipas, said a dispatch from that city.

The deadliness of the fumes was shown when Fire Chief Edward Green, Coroner Arch L. Bell and several firemen attempted to enter the pit with oxygen helmets late Monday. They were forced to make a hasty exit only after forty seconds in the cellar. They were almost overcome and today still felt the effects of the fumes.

THOUSANDS OF BEREAVED OFFICE BOYS USE GRANDMOTHER GAG AS BALL SEASON OPENS

Thousands of bereaved office boys
will be called to their homes to view
the unfortunate remains of as many grandmothers at or about 3:30 o'clock
this afternoon, simultaneous with the official opening of the major league
baseball season.

The mortality among these aged relatives will be particularly noticeable
in New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Boston, Washington, Detroit and Chicago, but it is only a coincidence that the cities in question
will play host to the inaugural games
of the 1924 season. It is just the way of grandmothers and ball games in general.

Just for the sake of forewarning the victims of their calamitous end, it may be mentioned that the opening
games have been arranged as follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Brooklyn at New York.
Boston at Philadelphia.
Chicago at St. Louis.
Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
New York at Boston.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Cleveland at Detroit.
St. Louis at Chicago.

JAMESTOWN STORE ROBBED TUESDAY MORNING EARLY

The Fred Nelson jewelry store, Wickham Block, Jamestown, was robbed of $200 worth of merchandise
by burglars who entered the store
Monday night or early Tuesday morning.

The loot consisted principally of fountain pens, besides some gold and silver pencils and sterling silver rings.
No attempt was made to open the safe, which contained the higher priced
jewelry.

The burglars gained entrance by
boring a hole in the front door frame,
above the lock. Through this aperture
they were able to reach inside, and release the night lock to gain admittance. The merchandise was removed from cases, but the store was not ransacked.

A pedestrian noticed the hole in the front door when passing the store at 5:15 o'clock Tuesday morning. He noticed the telephone exchange and an operator called Marshal Joe Adams,
who later notified the Sheriff's office
here.

BUSINESS NOT CLOSE
New York, April 15.—E. H. Gary,
chairman of the U. S. Steel Corporation, back from a tour of South American countries, said today he feared business relations between North and South America were not as close as they should be.

"Perhaps it is our fault," said Gary,
"for the Latins seemed anxious to cultivate friendship with the United States."

GUEST AT DINNER
Mrs. E. A. Allen of Circleville, formerly of Jamestown, who writes under the name of Grace Bcteler Allen,
was a guest at the matrix dinner of

BRITAIN READY TO LEND DAWES PLAN SUPPORT

Acceptance Is Conditional
Upon Action of Other Nations

London, April 15.—Premier Ramsay
Macdonald announced in the house of commons this afternoon that Great Britain is prepared to support the Dawes reparation plan in its entirety
provided the other interested nations
do likewise.

"The British government is greatly
satisfied with the experts report," continued the premier. "It is unbiased
and a carefully thought out endeavor
to aid the governments concerned."

Premier Macdonald and his cabinet
have been studying the Dawes plan
ever since it was published last Wednesday. They believe it offers a sound solution of the reparation problem
which has vexed Europe for nearly five years. Premier Macdonald said he had communicated Great Britain's willingness to accept the experts plan
to all governments concerned, including that of the United States.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY REVEALED TUESDAY

Cleveland, O., April 15.—A love so strong, that life apart was impossible,
had today caused the death of Mrs.
Margaret Horvath, 28 and Peter Hasak, 35, a former boarder at the Horvath home.

When Horvath arrived from work
yesterday he found his wife dead
and Hasak dying beside her, a revolver clutched in his hand.

"Bury us in one grave," read a note beside the couple. "In as much as we cannot be each other's, we have decided to die together."

MORE FATALITIES REPORTED
Barcelona, April 15.—Fatalities from Sunday's subway cave-in, reached fifteen today.

TO ATTEND EXPOSITION
Barcelona, April 15.—General Primo
Rivera, head of the dictatorship, arrived
today to attend the closing of the national automobile exposition.

Advices Receivers in Oil Leases.

WILLIAM E. MULLEN

William E. Mullen, of Cheyenne,
Wyo., has been appointed legal adviser to the receivers of the Teapot Dome oil reserves—Admiral Joseph Strauss and Albert E.
Watts, vice-president of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Company.
They had been unable to agree on administrative details. Mullen
formerly Attorney-General of Wyo-ning, will also act as arbitrator between the receivers.

SAYS DEAL MADE BEFORE HARDING GIVEN NOMINATION

Washington, April 15.—A deal was made previous to the nomination of the late Warren G. Harding in the 1920 Republican convention, to make Albert B. Fall, secretary of the interior, H. W. Ballard, of Los Angeles,
told the senate public lands committee today. Ballard said he was a friend of the late Jake Hamon.

The offer was advanced by oil interests who were promised a lease to Teapot Dome, Ballard said.

Ballard declared he first learned of the deal from the late Jake Hamon,
former Republican national committee man from Oklahoma, in a conversation in Ardmore, Okla., in July 1920,
shortly after the convention.

"Albert Fall was bought like a steer
and thrown into the job," Ballard said
Hamon told him.

Under questioning by Spencer, Ballard testified that the late President Harding "knew nothing of the deal to make Fall secretary of interior."

The deal was put over prior to the nomination and Mr. Harding was "framed," Ballard said.

Except with two or three of his associates in the oil business, Ballard
said he had not discussed his testimony "with anyone besides Mr. Sloane an International News Service man in Los Angeles."

"Sloane came to me and said he had
the dope and asked me for an interview," Ballard said.

"Hamon told me it would be worth $500,000 to Fall if Fall was to be secretary of the interior. At first $150,000
was to be paid with the balance payable annually."

LACK OF CONCERN IN ATTITUDE TOWARD CHILDREN SCORED BY XENIA SPEAKER

"One does not need to inquire if Xenians are interested in school problems and successes," declared Judge
Reed M. Powell, of Jackson, Ohio,
vice-president of the Ohio Parent-Teacher Association, in an address at the Jean B. Elwell auditorium at the new Central High School Monday night. "This building is a monument
to their interest and co-operation, and is the finest high school for the size
of the city I have visited in the state of Ohio."

"No Christian or civilized community can afford to show a happy-go-
lucky lack of concern for the youth
of today, for if so, that community
will have to pay the penalty of financial and social degeneration in the tomorrow. The country is in a state of transition and in some places there is talk being heard of retrenchment
in school expenditures."

"This is no time to cut down school
expenditures, and it is such organizations as the Parent-Teacher Associations, that we must turn for aid to prevent this happening."

"The public schools will reach their highest degree of service only by having the heartiest co-operation of all agencies concerned with public education, from the state department down to the child. Of all the co-operating agencies none bears a finer relationship to the schools than the P. T. A.
Their organization has rendered invaluable service to education in Ohio.
It is unreasonable that the school shall be a force in community life so long as the parents stand aloof and refuse to associate themselves together with the teachers in the studies of the year and the purpose of the schools,
as it relates to the home, community activities and needs. The Parent-Teacher Association asks only to serve and to show others how to serve."

"Trooping through the gates of birth comes the future nation, in plastic form, into your hands, you parents,
statesmen, teachers and preachers.
To you is committed the supreme task
of furnishing the environment that destroys or builds. It's up to you!

CONGRESS ANGRY OVER THREAT OF AMBASSADOR PREPARES TO PASS MEASURE; RECALL LIKELY

Fighting Spirit Aroused Over What is Termed "Improper" Note of Hanihara, Threatening "Grave Consequences" if Countrymen Are Excluded.

Washington, April 15.—Its fighting spirit aroused, congress prepared today to call Japan's hand by passing the exclusion act which erects
an impassable barrier to the future
entrance of Japanese immigrants into the United States and possessions.

The temper of congress became so plain today that the recall of Massano Hanihara, the Japanese ambassador, looms as a possible
sequel to the passage of the exclusion legislation.

The house already has acted by a vote to more than four to one in favor of excluding Japanese by statute.

The senate, angry and determined,
will endorse the house's action by an
even larger vote, it appeared today.
Even administration leaders such as Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania and others, declared that Hanihara's
blunt "threat of grave consequences
in Japanese-American relations was a challenge to the sovereignty of the United States that cannot be ignored."

In view of the size of the vote by which the senate is expected to pass
the exclusion feature, it seemed doubtful today whether President
Coolidge will be constrained to veto
the measure. Congressional leaders said privately it would make but little difference if presidential disapproval was expressed—that the Hanihara letter has so solidified sentiment in congress that passage over
a veto might be expected.

On all sides today, the letter of the Japanese ambassador warning
Secretary of State Hughes of "grave consequences" was considered in the light of "an international blunder"
and the recall of the ambassador,
once the exclusion becomes law, is regarded as inevitable in the natural
course of events.

Senator Lodge frankly described Hanihara's letter as "improper."
"The question of immigration," he said, "is perhaps the greatest of sovereign rights. If a nation shall choose to say who shall come into the country it ceases to be a sovereign nation."

Members of the powerful senate
foreign relations committee strongly backed up Lodge's contentions.
Senator Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, said Hanihara's letter
contained more than "a veiled threat."
"It is a very clear threat."

Not since the hectic days of war
oratory, has the senate heard such frank speeches dealing with powerful and friendly nation. The letter of the Japanese ambassador was dealt with by a score of senators, Republicans and Democrats alike and almost without exception, it was denounced as "improper," "insulting"

A week ago it would have been doubtful whether the Japanese ex-

the Hanihara letter crystallized congressional resentment almost overnight and even those senators, who
a week ago declared they would not vote to "affront Japan," declared today their votes would be cast in favor of exclusion.

Tokio, April 15.—Japan will protest and call upon the United States
to submit the matter to a joint commission or conference provided the senate passes the immigration bill,
calling for Japanese exclusion and President Coolidge approves it.

This was learned late this afternoon while officials were generally expressing confidence, that passage
of the measure was an impossibility.

A statement of Japan's attitude
was expected to be forthcoming
shortly.

Amazement and unbelief were shown in every section of the foreign office today when extras were carried to officials flashing the action
of the United States Senate on the immigration bill.

One high official said the situation was too grave for him to make a statement. Tokio newspapers this afternoon claimed the American question is occupying the entire attention of a prolonged cabinet session. It was said a statement was being outlined by the cabinet to be issued late today by Premi Matsui.

"INSIDE STORY" OF OHIO DEALS TOLD ON STAND

Paroled Federal Prisoner
Testifies Before Senate Committee

Washington, April 15.—"An inside
story" of illicit whiskey deals in Ohio,
participated in by close friends of
former Attorney General Harry M.
Daugherty, was revealed to the Wheeler-Brookhart committee today
by Cecil H. Kearns, of Toledo paroled from the Atlanta Penitentiary on a sentence for violating the dry law.

Kearns charge the prohibition act
was openly violated in Ohio "in return for the campaign contributions. He cited as one instance a contribution of $50,000 by Abe Ungerleider of Cleveland, "who had an understanding that he could get his money back in liquor deals."

Another sensational allegation that federal pardons were sold during the administration was made by Kearns.
He charged that one prisoner, named
Fred Grant, paid $25,000 for a pardon
on the understanding he would be freed "through the effort of a Mr.
Slomp."

The prisoner was freed, Kearns said,
after serving two years of a five year
sentence.

DEMANDS INSERTION OF DRY PLANK IN G. O. P. PLATFORM

Cleveland, April 15.—Demands that a dry plank be inserted in the Republican national platform at the national convention to be held here beginning June 10 was made before the "political Plattsburgh meeting of Republican women by Mrs. John Gordon Battelle, of Columbus, at the opening session
here today.

Mrs. Battelle, who replaced Mrs.
David R. Tod, of Youngstown, on the program, declared that women not only wanted "fine Republican men"
to represent them on the national and state tickets, but in addition they wanted "dry men."

SAYS NEW METHOD HEALS RUPTURE

Kansas City Doctor's Discovery Makes Truss or Operation Unnecessary

A new discovery which, experts agree, has no equal for curative effects in all rupture cases, is the latest accomplishment of Dr. Andrews, well known hernia specialist of Kansas City, Mo.

The extraordinary success of this new method proves that it holds and heals a rupture. It weighs only a few ounces. Has no hard gouging pads, no elastic belt, no leg straps, no steel bands, and is as comfortable as a light garment. It has enabled hundreds of persons to throw away trusses and declare their rupture absolutely healed. Many of these had serious double ruptures, from which they had suffered for years. It is Dr. Andrews' ambition to have every ruptured person enjoy the quick relief, comfort and healing power of his discovery, and he will send it on free trial to any reader of The Gazette-Republic who writes him. He wants one person in each neighborhood to whom he can refer. If you wish to be rid of rupture for good, without an operation, take advantage of the doctor's free offer. Write him today.

TALKS ON 'SERVICE' BEFORE MEMBERS OF LOCAL LEGION

Dr. B. R. McClellan, former commander of Joseph P. Foody Post, American Legion, talked on "Service" when addressing members of the post in meeting Monday night.

He replaced Dr. W. P. Edmunds, Washington C. H., former commander of Company F, 330th, Infantry, during the World War, who was scheduled to speak, but was unable to be present.

Dr. McClellan told Legionnaires of the service they could render for unfortunates, of the service of teaching honor of the flag and country and rendering service by taking part in community activities.

He referred to the efforts of members of the Legion during the Memorial Day parade last year in causing bystanders to remove their hats as the flag passed. Dr. McClellan also touched on the problem of caring for the feeble-minded and mental unfortunates in institutions, which he proclaimed a growing menace. He pictured this growing wave of mental deficiency as a dead locomotive, which requires all the energy and power of all the live locomotives, to keep it going.

The speaker also praised the Opportunity School work.

Declaring that the Legion stands for better citizenship, Dr. McClellan said the post should interest itself in housing conditions in Xenia, and cited situations that are making for a poor citizenship because of poor living conditions. He also referred to city beautification and urged participation by the Legion in the campaigns that will improve conditions in this city.

A committee composed of Joe Adams, William Rickles and Walter Lunn was named to represent the post at the meeting of the Xenia Community Recreation Association Thursday evening at City Hall. Sheriff Morris Sharp was appointed to hear the pleas of alleged ex-soldiers who stop here and ask for aid, co-operating with the Red Cross in this work.

The post voted a change in membership fee from $5 to $3 annually for members who receive their mail from postoffices outside of Greene County and passed a resolution thanking the Criterion for use of its window for advertising the Legion motion picture recently.

The post recently sent $20 to the state adjutant as its share of $5,000 subscribed for the state department to the O. S. & S. O. Home Library fund. Virgil Martin, representing the Citizens' Military Training Camp, told of the campaign to get candidates for this year's camp.

Douglas Custis, adjutant, was appointed to consult with ministers who have been assisting a movement to prevent Sunday funerals, asking them to grant exceptions in case of military funerals so that Legion men could participate without remaining away from their employment. The adjutant reported the post now has seventy members.

CHURCHES TO HONOR LOCAL MINISTER LEAVING THE CITY

A union church service, honoring the Rev. B. B. Uhl, who has resigned the pastorate of the First Lutheran Church this city, will be held on the evening of Sunday April 27, it was decided at the meeting of Xenia Ministerial Association, Monday.

On account of the popularity of the Rev. Mr. Uhl, and the large number of persons who will desire to attend the service, it was decided to hold the meeting at the Second United Presbyterian Church.

The paper at the meeting Monday was read by the Rev. James P. Lytle, of the First U. P. Church, on the topic "Preach the Word."

A committee consisting of the Rev. W. H. Tifford and the Rev. J. P. Lytle, was appointed by the president of the association, Dr. Charles P. Proudfit, to have charge of the matter of the Daily Vacation Bible School.

The association is cooperating in making Sunday, May 25, a universal anti-Saloon League Field Day in Xenia churches.

IS RE-INSTATED

Cincinnati, April 15.—George S. Hawke, former U. S. attorney and dry leader, disbarred sometime ago, by the common pleas court, after a hearing on charges of unprofessional conduct, was re-instated by Hamilton county common pleas judges today.

TELLS OF WORK IN REHABILITATING THE HANDICAPPED

Herbert Zinn, representative of the State Civilian Rehabilitation Service, Columbus, was the principal speaker, at the Social Service League monthly board meeting, at the City Hall, Monday night. He spoke concerning the work of rehabilitating the handicapped, and cited many interesting cases of men and women who, from being absolutely dependent on the public, are now self-supporting. His address was in line with the work being carried on by the local organization.

Mrs. H. A. Hoffman, of North Detroit Street, was employed to do special work in child hygiene during the summer months, by the league. She will assist Dr. H. C. Messenger in "carrying on" the baby clinics, which the Kiwanis Club, is sponsoring for the league. Arrangements have been made to hold the baby clinic and other clinics in the basement of the Court House, owing to the lack of sufficient room at the league headquarters. Dr. R. H. Grube has consented to place his office rooms at the disposal of the organizations holding clinics.

A five passenger Ford will be purchased for the use of the league workers, soon.

The spring season has brought a slight "falling off" in the number of cases handled during the month, according to Mrs. L. R. Robertson, executive secretary. The grocery and coal bill of the league, was $77.75 during the month.

Twenty-two new cases of illness were brought under the care of Miss Jennie Moffett, league public health nurse, last month, and with twenty-seven cases already in her care, made a total of forty-nine cases handled. Twenty-nine were discharged in various manners, leaving twenty under the nurse's care at the end of month. Miss Moffett made 166 calls during the month, in connection with her work. She gave sixteen treatments, and made eighteen dressings.

EAST END NEWS

Miss Ruth Greenway of East Second Street, is confined indoors with mumps.

Mrs. John Anderson, of East Church Street, received a telegram announcing the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Anderson, of Columbus. She died Monday morning of a complication of diseases. The funeral will be held at her home in Columbus Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Mrs. Anderson, her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilkey and Mr. Roy Hicks will attend the service.

The Mutual Benefit Society, will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Belle Howard on Columbus Avenue.

The teen age girls of the Missionary Society of Zion Baptist Church met after school with Zelda Booth of Williams avenue. After the regular order of business a splendid program was rendered. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. A. C. Hawkins, assisted by Mrs. Oscar Jones are the Superintendents.

Mrs. Ardenia Cosby of East Third Street, has returned from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Essie David of Columbus.

The musical section of the Third Baptist Church Missionary Society, will give a program Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Some of the best talent of the city and vicinity will appear on the program. The complete program will be announced Saturday. Mrs. Crunkleton will be one of the main speakers of the afternoon.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

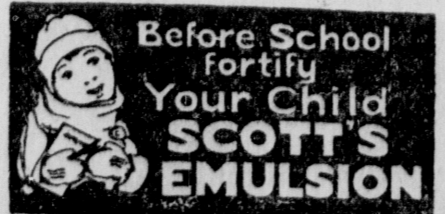

PROTECTION FROM MOTHS

Sold clothing attracts moths very quickly. Be sure to have your winter clothes dry-cleaned before you put them away. The value of clothing destroyed by moths amounts to a great many millions of dollars annually.

Mendenhall's New Process of dry-cleaning eliminates to a great extent the danger of destruction by moths. This is the proper time to take this precaution.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Xenia Garden Club will meet in the City Commission office in the City Building Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. A speaker, whose name has not yet been announced, will be present and give a talk on the planting of shrubs and flowers. Mrs. Charles Kelble, the president of the Garden Club, requests that any one wishing to order plants or shrubs through the Garden Club hand the order to her not later than Friday April 18. She states that the club is planning for a rose sale which will be held Wednesday April 23.

FOR ITCHING TORTURE

Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation, and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes skin diseases. Eczema, Itch, Pimples, Rash, Blackheads, in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 55c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins. Zemo Soap, 25c—Zemo Ointment, 50c.

Many people have been asking about the planting of zinnias and Mrs. Finney states that the first of May is the most favorable time for planting the seed. The Garden Club has lately enrolled a large number of new members and all are urged to be present at the meeting Wednesday evening.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Read How Mrs. Walsh Was Helped by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mannington, West Virginia.—"I took the Vegetable Compound when having the turn of life. I had been sick for seven years. I would get a little better, then I broke down again. It would be hard for me to describe how I was, for I was a perfect wreck. I suffered with a pain in my left side, then I would have numb spells and I would think I couldn't live. I would have hot flashes, then would come weak spells. I was so weak I would think I couldn't ever get a meal ready. My work was a burden to me. I was not able to do my housework half of the time. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has given me strength and health. The hot flashes left me and I got better of the numb spells. That summer I could do my housework and worked in the garden a good bit. I tell all sick women what your wonderful medicine did for me, and will always recommend it. I was born in Marion County and still live in it. I am known to all my neighbors, and you can publish this statement because it is true."

NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH AS TORNADO STRIKES OKLAHOMA

Relatives have received word from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ralls, of Shawnee, Oklahoma, of their safety following the tornado that struck the city about three weeks ago.

Mr. Ralls, a former Xenian, is employed on the railroad out of Shawnee, and was not in the path of the storm. Their two properties in the city were both totally destroyed, and Mrs. Ralls had sought safety at the home of a neighbor a half block away from her home. The house was completely demolished, and she was taken from the wreckage unconscious. She remained in a coma for several days, and for a time her condition was critical. She rallied, and is now recovering.

STINNES

Hugo Stinnes, who died in Berlin last Thursday, was the symbol of Germany in transition—transition from war to peace, from primary to secondary international importance, from rule by oligarchy to rule by bourgeoisie, from Kaiser to saddlemaker.

Before the war he was one of a number of industrial barons whose ideas and power were strictly subordinated to the aspirations and supremacy of the State. The war effort of the nation as a whole overshadowed as well as embraced the particular workings of the heavy industries. During the chaotic period of transition that followed Stinnes was forced and forced himself to the top. So great was the financial and political power with which he managed to surround himself, that in the eyes of many, if not his own, he was the State.

Personally, Stinnes had a heavy-industry mind and a heavy-industry body. He had the reserve energy of a coal-mine and the hardness of pig-iron. The product of two generations of men that enjoyed wealth and large economic power, he continued to work indefatigably to develop that wealth and power.

When asked why he imposed upon himself unnecessarily burdens, he answered, "for his children." Here was combined the dynastic complex with the idea that the State is founded upon the family and the family owes everything to the State. This may explain the seeming paradox of Stinnes, the German patriot, taking advantage of the post-bellum economic conditions to fill his own coffers at the expense of and to the demoralization of the German people. With Stinnes his children came first.

Stinnes was a transitory figure. With the close of the transition period, which gave abnormal power to German heavy industry because it seemed the only thing of sufficient weight to anchor Germany to earth, other elements will emerge to bring a normal balance, though, perhaps, never again in the old relationships and proportions.

At a time when the post-war shake-down seems to be in process of completion, there may be something symbolic about the passing of Hugo Stinnes. The losing of his personal graft upon political and financial wires in Germany may aid in the establishing of the new order of things contemplated in the Dawes reparation program.

ENGLAND HOPEFUL FOR PEACE

The Dawes-McKenna reparation report has been received in England with reserve, but at the general tenor of press and unofficial comment was that it "is a start in the right direction" and may lead to a settlement.

The general opinion in the more responsible press is that General Dawes displayed too much optimism in his covering letter, but, on the other hand, he gained for himself unstinted praise for what is considered as a careful and unprejudiced report on the actual conditions of Germany's finances.

If Prime Minister MacDonald's attitude on a European settlement has been interpreted correctly, it seems he again will run afoul of a large section of public opinion on the committee reports. He has asserted that reparation must be settled first and other questions—debts, security and guarantees—afterward.

The press admits the reports form a sound basis for a reparation discussion and expresses the belief that Germany cannot afford to jeopardize its position before the world by declining to accept them as such a basis, but at the same time several newspapers take the position that a political settlement is more vital to peace than a financial accord.

CALVIN COOLIDGE AS A VOTE-GETTER

As the Illinois and Nebraska polls closed Fate was patting the Hiram Johnson hopes in the face with a sexton's spade. Out in the great open spaces of the wheat, corn and country Johnson ambitions were buried. On Monday came Michigan, with thirty-three delegates; on Tuesday, Illinois, with sixty-one, and Nebraska with nineteen. Meanwhile, Rhode Island, on Monday, contributed thirteen. The gain in two days was 126, giving Coolidge 460 instructed and between 511 and 533 probable delegates.

Nomination on the first ballot requires 555 votes. Those needed are in sight. Only death, total disability or an upset beyond all fore-seeing can prevent a Coolidge victory at Cleveland.

It was a big week for Coolidge. So big, in fact, that taken with what has gone before, his personal strength can no longer be discounted. New England, the Atlantic seaboard and the South were expected to be his; but his amazing strength in the Midwest, West and Northwest was not expected two months ago.—Public Ledger.

Mrs. F.: "What do women use to keep the feathers on a feather-covered hat from blowing and breaking in the wind?"

Answer: They used to use vellum but nowadays they use a hairnet put right on over the hat as you would put it over your head.

Mrs. W.: "I would appreciate it if some of your readers sent in their recipes for the old-fashioned Liver Balls for Soup."

Answer: Let us hope that some of them will be good enough to write this recipe on a postcard and mail it to me in care of this paper, to be published.

Anonymous: "This may not be in your line, but I would appreciate an answer nevertheless: Would a person buying an automobile in March of this year have to pay personal property taxes on same for the year 1923?"

Answer: No. You pay taxes only on property owned on December 31st, 1923. Things bought in 1924 will be taxable in 1925.

R. A.: "Have you crocheted directions for carnations? I would like some. Answer: I am sorry that I have not. But perhaps some Reader Friend who has will be kind enough to send them in to us?"

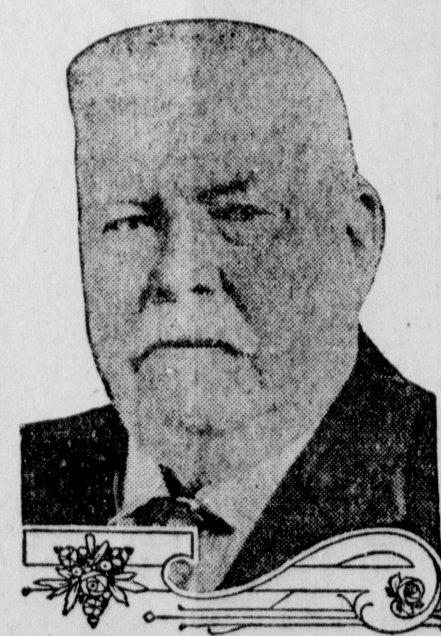

Meg.: "How can I remove canned-peach stains and raw-meat stains from a brown, crepe-faced satin dress?"

Answer: These are both very difficult stains to remove, and especially on satin. The only reagent which I could suggest—the only one that will not ruin the satin—is naphtha and gasoline. Use these fluids out of doors, as they are both very inflammable.

stubborn the case," said Mr. Thomas Boyer, well-known horseman, of 53 Broadway, Newburgh, N. Y. "I am 53 years old, and weigh over 225 pounds, and this is some weight to carry when one has rheumatism in the legs the way I have suffered the last two years. It affected me so bad that I could not stand and it seemed as if I never could get on my feet without making two or three attempts.

"At times the pain was unbearable, and would get my nerve. I spent a lot of money on doctors and medicine but got no better. My wife bought me a box of Neutrone Prescription '99' Tablets, and I started taking them. This seemed to be just what I needed; I was helped right from the start.

"So far I have taken five boxes and I feel like a new man. I work every day; all swellings and pains have left my legs and I am so active and spry on my feet that everyone notices the change. Neutrone Rx. '99' knocked out my rheumatism when everything else had failed and I believe it will do all it claims for anyone who will give it a fair trial."

Neutrone Prescription '99' now comes in tablet as well as liquid form, whichever is preferred. Leading Druggists everywhere.

THE KNOCKING STRANGER

The house in which we each live is the most interesting house in the world.

Within its walls all the heights and depths of our greatest joys, as well as our sorrows, play like bouncing balls.

The other evening I passed by a house. It was brilliant with lights and loud with laughter. But I wondered about the happiness in there. Was there any?

And I thought of the time when those gathered in that home would be separated, and the lights would be out, and there would be quiet.

Then I thought of someone who wasn't asked to join that group, but who came later—and not only to one of the party gathered the night before, but to each and every one of them. A stranger, seemingly, who knocked and knocked, until the covers of the restless heart were thrown back, and the door opened—only to find waiting outside one who spoke quietly and firmly: "It is Thyself!"

We can no more get away from our real and genuine, our divine selves than we can live in this material world without air. Often do we say: "Go away! Do not bother me now. Let me be free to do as I please." And then the stranger who is at the door, only smiles and replies, "I will return."

And he does return, this higher, this nobler self of ours—to save us from ourselves.

But we must accept the proffered help. The drowning person who will not reach for the hand that seeks to save, may not be saved.

The knocking stranger is the best friend you have ever had or ever will have! Let him in. Do as he tells you.

BANDITS ARE SOUGHT.

Columbus, O., April 15.—Police today are hunting for three bandits who blew the door from a safe in the Moore Oil Company office here and escaped with over $3,000 in securities and $100 in cash last night.

Night watchman Frank A. Kaiser, while the bandits worked, was forced to sit in the darkness, a pistol being held beside his head by one of the bandits.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

ACCORDING TO THE GOSSIP Her husband had been dead a year. Today she flashed a scarlet hat, And all the neighbors smiled at that.

And even grandma said: "Oh dear, It may be right, it may be wrong, Young widows never mourn for long!"

Flesh colored stockings Mrs. Brown Observed on her the other day, And months ago she changed to gray.

The color of her mourning gown. Said old Aunt Agnes, with a smile: "A broken heart must be in style."

She trips so gayly down the street, Her pretty head well-poised in air, Nor seems to know, nor seems to care What curious glances she may meet.

PAINTERSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Asbery Wolary, of Paintersville, entertained at Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolary, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolary and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ellis, of Port William, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wolary, Mrs. Olive Carter and daughter Minnie, of Xenia.

The contest supper given at the church Thursday evening was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickering and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pickering attended the funeral of Miss Hazel Pickering, at Dayton Saturday.

Easter services will be held at the church Sunday morning, April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and daughter, Cleo were the Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Haines. Dr. R. L. Haines is recovering after an attack of septic sore throat.

Yet one remarked, when she had gone: "Well, well! She's put her earrings on!"

I get it from the nodding heads And observations ultra-wise Collected by the sharpest eyes Which follow her where'er she treads—

It may be May, it may be June, But there will be a wedding soon.

LET CONTRACT FOR ROAD IMPROVEMENT IN GREENE COUNTY

Contract for improving that section of the Columbus-Cincinnati inter-county highway, lying in Greene County between a point near Cedarville and the county line, was let Monday by the State Highway Department to N. B. Putman, of Van Wert.

The bids were opened last Friday, and Putman was low with his bid of $39,643.62. The contract calls for waterbound macadam and the work will be started at once, so that it will be completed this summer.

The section is about two and one-half miles long, and extends from a point near the residence of Clayton McMillan east of Cedarville, to the termination of the Greene County line. It will be the last stretch of that pike in Greene County east of Xenia to be paved and Madison and Clark Counties are preparing to similarly improve the sections of the highway lying in their counties.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

YOU NEVER DO
THIS

BUT THE GOVERNMENT
HAS TO WHY?

Because of the activity of people who uncoin money, governments must constantly regulate and supervise the output and circulation of metallic currency.

All commerce consists in the exchange of commodities of equal value, so when we allow money to act as a medium of exchange it is easy to see that pieces must be so nearly equal in metallic content that all folks will indifferently substitute one coin for another, without going through the process of testing each coin to determine its actual weight.

Therefore in order to keep coins in circulation, as issued from the mint, and out of the hands of bullion-brokers and experts, governments must see to it:

1. That standard coins conform as nearly as possible to the standard weight at all times, and
2. That adequate measures be taken for withdrawing from circulation all coins which are worn below the least legal weight to prevent their degeneration into token coins.

CATARRH CURED IN 24 HOURS THROUGH NEW DISCOVERY

Complete Relief By New Treatment
Positively Guaranteed—Or No Cost
Every disagreeable and disgusting symptom of chronic Catarrh is checked in 24 hours—through a remarkable new internal treatment.

It is called Dr. Platt's Rinex Prescription, and is based on the latest medical discoveries. These prove that Catarrh is not simply a surface disease, but is more often the result of poisons in the system. Rinex taken internally in simple capsule form, goes direct to these poisons and neutralizes them. So every nasty and offensive symptom disappears as if by magic.

Why be handicapped a day longer by foul, offensive breath, obnoxious nasal discharges and thickened speech—when Rinex is guaranteed to relieve you completely—or it costs you nothing?

Get Rinex today and just TRY it. Costs only $1, which the druggist will instantly refund if it does not do the work. Be sure to get the genuine Dr. Platt's Rinex Prescription in the air-tight glass flask.

You can have a trial treatment free, by writing to the Clinical Laboratories, Cleveland, Ohio, and sending 10 cents to cover packing and postage. But you take no risk in getting the $1 package direct from the dealer. It is on sale in this city at Sayre and Hemphill.

BEGIN PROBE OF DEATH OF SIX

West Lebanon, Ind., April 15.—County officials today began an investigation into the death of six members of the family of Robert Wilson of Cincinnati, who were killed when a fast Wabash passenger train struck the automobile in which they were riding at West Lebanon depot crossing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, three daughters, Jean, Elizabeth and Mary and one son, George, died in the crash. Two other children were riding in the automobile of Joseph Gordon, a relative, just behind the Wilson car.

All of the victims were from Cincinnati. They were peddlers of household accessories.

SPRINGFIELD WILL BE ELIMINATED AS DIRECT D. T. & I. STOP

Springfield is to be eliminated as a direct stop on the D. T. and I. Railroad the result of a cutoff to be built between South Charleston and Trenton City, shortening the line, it was announced following the annual meeting of the stockholders of the D. T. and I. Monday.

The original line, it is said, will be maintained only to haul freight to and from Springfield. The new depot is to be built north of Springfield for the city's passenger traffic.

The purchase of a tract of land two miles wide and a mile and a half long north of Charleston was for the purpose of placing the main yards of the railroad at that point, it was announced Monday. Other plans taken up by the stock holders include double tracking the road from Greenfield south to the Ohio River, construction of a bridge across the Ohio, and extending the road to the Kentucky coal fields.

The annual report of the road points out that the electrification of the first twenty miles of the road south of Detroit will be commenced within sixty days.

Henry Ford was re-elected president of the railroad at the meeting of the directors in Dearborn, Monday.

"SHUFFLE ALONG" TO APPEAR IN XENIA

"Shuffle Along," that delightful colored musical revue which made a big hit on its original trip through this part of the country, will again be the attraction at the Xenia Opera House, Saturday, April 26, it is announced.

The show was the first of its kind to reach Broadway since the days of Williams and Walker, and was so popular along the "Great White Way," that it met with ready success on its initial road trip last year. In a new dress of humor and music, the show should have a powerful appeal on its return here next week.

The book is by Miller and Lyles, and is full of merry situations. Sissie and Blake furnished the musical score and lyrics and the cast that comes here will feature more than sixty colored entertainers, including some of the best talent in the country and a happy and tuneful chorus.

Among these artists will be Emma Jackson, well-known prima donna, Margaret Scott, Edgar Martin and Edgar Connors, the comedians and the famous colored "Valentino," Theodore McDonald, who possess a wonderful baritone that adds much to the music numbers.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

COMING To Demonstrate Remarkable New RUPTURE INVENTION

If you are ruptured and wear a truss, now is your opportunity to get a FREE TRIAL of the most scientifically constructed Rupture Support ever invented.

William S. Rice, Adams, N. Y., originator of the Rice (Non-Surgical) Rupture Method, is sending his representative to The Regil Hotel, Xenia, Ohio, Thursday, April 17, and to Cherry Hotel, Washington C. H., Ohio, Friday, April 18, to personally explain and demonstrate his wonderful new Rupture Invention entirely free to every man, woman and child who is ruptured.

It is absolutely guaranteed to hold any rupture, large or small, no matter where located and afford proper protection at all times.

It is positively the most comfortable for every day wear at all kinds of work and can be worn nights and at all other times with no discomfort.

It is guaranteed not to slip out of place under any circumstances and the pressure so easily adjusts itself to all positions and movements of the body that there is no cutting or chafing.

It has proven the only properly constructed Rupture Support ever supplied for ruptured women, can be worn with or without, can corset and actually improves the abdominal outlines.

It is equally valuable for ruptured children as it allows for full normal growth and development without limiting youthful activities or allowing the slightest protrusion of the rupture.

Pads are made of soft, resilient material, light, durable and comfortable. Hug the flesh snugly yet do not irritate. They are designed and shaped to fit and give pressure at the right spot so the bowel can not possibly escape.

Hundreds of thousands in use all over the civilized world, and thousands are throwing all trusses on the scrap heap after a brief use of this scientific Rupture Support.

Support For Abdomen Where There is no Rupture

This wonderful Appliance is also used with great success as a Support following operations and for Ptois (fallen stomach), floating kidney, sagging of abdominal contents and any condition requiring corrective support for the abdomen. And for men and women who have no rupture but require a strong uplift support for large fleshy or pendulous abdomens a special design is supplied which distributes the pressure over the entire back and carries the weight in front however great, without cutting or discomfort.

THE FREE TRIAL is for every man, woman and child who is ruptured. So don't fail to call and test the exceptional merits of this guaranteed Rupture Support. It has no equal and is being recommended by physicians and hospitals everywhere. Call any time from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., or 7 to 9 evenings. The test, remember, costs you nothing.

Greene Countians Who Have Achieved Distinction

(Editor's Note—This is number 46 of a series of articles concerning Greene County citizens and former citizens who have attained very wide prominence in their chosen fields of endeavor. It is interesting to note that Greene County has furnished more than its share of people who have attained renown. The series has been written by a feature writer in the employ of The Gazette and The Republican.)

JAMES P. CHEW

James Parker Chew, editor of the publications of The Chew Publishing Company, the Evening Gazette and the Morning Republican, in all probability may lay claim to that remarkable title of the "oldest active newspaper editor in the country."

Mr. Chew has never made any effort to determine if he is the oldest active newspaper editor but it would be so unusual for a person of that age to retain the close interest in current affairs that the editorial chair demands and even more so to contribute practically two columns of editorial matter daily, year in and year out, that newspaper men consider the claim far from an empty one. In fact it is doubtful if editors of half his age supply their papers with as much editorial material or continue at that job every waking day in any one year, yet the venerable editor of the local publications has never had to have a substitute. It is perhaps equally remarkable that Mr. Chew has edited his own newspaper publications continuously for a period of seventy-two years. He was born in York County, Pa., April 10, 1832, and received his common school education at Carlisle, Pa. He learned the trade of printer in the office of the Carlisle Herald, working there as an apprentice for $25 the first year, $40 the second year, $50 the third year and $60 the fourth year.

He left Carlisle in 1851 to start west, and while stopping in Harrisburg, Pa., had an offer of $7 a week. Turning down the Harrisburg offer, Mr. Chew continued by rail to Pittsburgh and then by boat down the Ohio river to Cincinnati. From that city, where he worked a short time, he went to Madison, Indiana, where he was employed on the Madison Banner, working the hand press that turned out the circulation of 700 copies, considered large in those days. He went to work at 2 o'clock in the morning and had finished turning out the paper by 7 o'clock. Mr. Chew recalls that the editor never wrote out his editorials, but set them up directly from the case.

In 1852 Mr. Chew went to Lawrenceburg, Ind., where he worked on the Lawrenceburg Press for a time, and a short time later bought the paper, six months before he had reached his majority. He lived there twenty-five years as editor and publisher of the Press, although interested in other businesses also. He was for seven years deputy collector of internal revenue for the Lawrenceburg district, in that time collecting $9,000,000.00. Redpath, the famous historian, was superintendent of schools at Lawrenceburg at that time.

Mr. Chew bought the Xenia Gazette, then a weekly newspaper, November 1, 1877, being anxious to settle in a Republican district, Lawrenceburg being Democratic. His son, the late W. B. Chew, managed the Xenia publication a year before his father closed his affairs there, Indiana and came here. The paper was purchased from Patton and Finley, and for a time Coates Kinney, the poet, was a contributor to its columns after Mr. Chew acquired its possession.

The paper was converted into a daily November 27, 1881, and the weekly was changed into a semi-weekly publication. The inauguration of the daily was considerable of a venture, for at that time no towns the size of Xenia had been able to support a daily paper. The battle to establish the paper as a daily was a long and hard one, and its ultimate success a tribute to the capabilities of its able editor. In August, 1888, Mr. Chew bought the Xenia Torchlight, which had been the leading paper when he came here, and consolidated that paper with the Gazette.

Mr. Chew's able direction of the Gazette to its position as one of the most successful small-city newspapers in the state, earned him recognition as one of Ohio's leading editors even as he is now known also as the dean of Ohio editors. He continued in active charge of the paper until a few years ago, when he gave up the active management of the publication but continued to retain his interest in The Chew Publishing Company and also to remain as editor.

Mr. Chew was early a member of the Associated Ohio Dailies, an organization of Ohio newspapers, and for twenty-five years served as treasurer of the organization. In that capacity he was a friend of L. H. Brush, of Salem, who was secretary, and who with Roy D. Moore recently purchased the late President Harding's newspaper, the Marion Star. Mr. Chew also became a friend of Mr. Harding through this organization and later in Florida, where he again met and renewed his friendship with the late president.

Having carried the Philadelphia Public Ledger as a boy, when he paid 90 cents for 100 copies and sold them for one cent apiece, Mr. Chew has always been an admirer of that publication and was a friend of the late George W. Childs, its editor from 1864 to 1894 whom he visited in 1876.

Mr. Chew had three children. His only son, the late W. B. Chew, was associated with him for years in the operation of his papers until his death last year. Two daughters, Mrs. J. O. McCormick of this city and Mrs. W. E. Hopton of Syracuse, N. Y., are still living.

ANNOUNCE SCHEDULE OF SERVICES DURING HOLY WEEK IN XENIA

The schedule of Holy Week services at St. Brigid's Catholic Church, is announced in a circular letter sent to members of the congregation by the Rev. John E. Kuhn, pastor.

This is the final week of Lent, which comes to an official close at noon Saturday although Easter Sunday is generally regarded as the termination of the period.

Thursday of this week is known as Holy Thursday, celebrating the commemoration of the institution of the Holy Eucharist instituted by Christ at the last supper, the night before He died on the cross. There will be a High Mass at 7 o'clock Thursday morning followed by a procession of the Blessed Sacrament and adoration all day. The services Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock will include a sermon on the passion of Christ.

Death of Christ on the cross is commemorated on Good Friday, beginning with the Mass of the Presanctified at 7 o'clock in the morning and veneration of the cross all day, with the usual Friday evening devotions at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

On Holy Saturday the services will begin at 6:30 o'clock in the morning, ending with the celebration of a High Mass. Easter Sunday will be a general communion day for all members of the parish. There will be three Masses Sunday morning, beginning with a High Mass at 6 o'clock, a Low

Mass at 8:30 o'clock and a High Mass at 10 o'clock.

In his letter to the congregation, the Rev. Father Kuhn, who will be assisted by a visiting priest during the services of the final days of Holy Week, extends greetings to his congregation as follows: "We wish to extend to all the members of St. Brigid's, the greetings of the joyous season upon which we are about to enter. May the risen Saviour fill your hearts with gladness and grant you in abundance His graces and favors."

DROWNS IN CISTERN; ILL HEALTH BLAMED

Mrs. John Vandervort, 54, prominent Clinton County resident, committed suicide Sunday by drowning in the cistern at the Vandervort home, three miles northwest of Kingman, according to word from that city. Her body was discovered by her husband, early in the morning. Ill health is believed to be responsible for her act.

Mrs. Vandervort was born near Harveysburg, and spent all of her life, with the exception of the past five years in that community. She is survived by her husband, two brothers and two sisters.

Used Kellogg's Bran 2 months— constipation gone after suffering 3 years

Three years of suffering with constipation. What happiness was his when Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, restored his health. But read his letter.

"Dear Sirs: This is what I think of your krumbled bran. I would not be without it for anything in the world. For three years I used all kinds of medicines for constipation, and only got temporary relief. I was advised by a doctor to use Kellogg's Bran, and since I began using it I don't have to take pills or anything else. I have used it two months, and my constipation has left me. I feel better, now than I have for three years."

(The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran brings results because it is ALL bran. You can't fight constipation with halfway meaasures—with bran which are only part bran. It takes ALL bran to be 100 per cent effective.

Because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. It acts naturally—just as nature acts. It stimulates the intestine and makes it function regularly. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will refund your money.

Kellogg's Bran has a delicious nut-like flavor. Quite different from ordinary, unpalatable bran. You will like it as a cereal, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the recipes given on every package.

Eat two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's Bran every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

MODISH MITZI—Survival Of The Fittest

She can't decide. She can't decide. Shall it be the one she has on? That is of brown suede with a bronze sort of buckle. Or shall it be the one the saleswoman is offering? That is brown kid with a wide brass buckle. The fair unknown can't decide (we don't know who she is, but she doesn't belong to us.)

But Mitzi, here, knows exactly what she wants. A pair of brown satin slippers with a cut-away strap that fits smoothly over her instep and buttons on one side. Satin and suede are both fashionable this spring. Patent leather, too, and plain shiny brown leather are very smart.

Polly has definite ideas—and even gladder ones than Mitzi's. Her shoes are suede with strips of plain leather trimming them. She is thinking that of course they are smart but wondering if they are too extreme. She will finally decide that they are not. Stockings in light shades continue to be worn.

Adelaide's shoes are patent leather. I don't know why Adelaide wears patent leather shoes so much, but she does. These have silk elastic inserts in the side (remember Congress gaiters?) and are slit in strips across the front. Be sure to get a shoe horn if you buy any.

How Can Such Little Snowflakes Completely Cover The Ground?

How can those tiny flakes cover the bleak, bare ground of the whole countryside with a thick mantle?

Because there are so many of them!

And that's just exactly the reason why the A-B-C Classified Ads can completely cover all your needs—because there are so many of these opportunities.

If you wish to obtain a fairly accurate idea of the number of classified announcements appearing in a year, just count the classified ads in today's Evening Gazette and Morning Republican—and then multiply that by the number of days in a year!

This will give you a clear conception of why classified opportunities can cover all your requirements.

As new requirements come up, new classified offers come up to meet them—and always keep your affairs well balanced.

Read them every day—don't miss any of the A-B-C ads.

PROPERTY OWNERS PROTEST ROAD TO COUNTY OFFICIALS

Property owners in Xenia and Spring Valley Townships, along the Cincinnati Pike between Xenia and the Warren County line, known as Inter-County Highway No. 6, were told that the expense of proposed paving on that pike would not be high, when they held a protest meeting with the Greene County Commissioners here Monday night.

About fifteen property-holders, headed by E. J. Kelsey, Spring Valley Township, who acted as chairman, carried the question to the county commissioners after a meeting held in Spring Valley at which sentiment opposed the construction of the road. Following the missionary work done by the commissioners and by County Surveyor W. J. Davis at Monday night's meeting, property holders are expected to drop their protests.

The road is a part of the inter-county highway system for which county commissioners have been granted $70,000 federal aid, by the state, for the purpose of paving. The pike is the last main market road into Xenia that has not been paved and as the state aid comes under the three-year Congressional road appropriation, now in its last year, commissioners say this will be their last chance to get this money for the proposed road construction.

The proposed paving was blocked by failure of property owners to sign a petition granting an easement to increase the present width of the road from forty-five feet to sixty feet to conform with state demands. The road was originally sixty-six feet wide, and was narrowed by consent of the commissioners on petition presented by property owners about ten years ago.

Since the state requires a sixty foot right of way before starting construction, it was necessary for commissioners to secure the easement from property owners, who balked at giving the grant. They admitted at Monday's hearing that they had been led to believe the 10 per cent of the cost to be paid by them would be exorbitant. Commissioners assured them the cost would be much less than they anticipated and would be negligible in the face of benefits to accrue. The protest is the first registered by property owners on any pike where paving has been done, it is said.

The proposed paving would cover a stretch of about eight and one-half miles, not including Spring Valley village, and would probably be from sixteen to eighteen feet wide, according to the desires of property owners. The specifications would also probably call for a six foot shoulder on each side. After its construction it would become a part of the state system, and would be maintained, repaired or rebuilt by the state, without assessment or cost to county, township or landowners, it was explained.

Commissioners proposed to build the road of either waterbound macadam or bituminous macadam, respecting wishes of property owners. County Surveyor Davis told the landowners that a waterbound macadam road was recently sold for about $16,000 a mile, which might be a standard figure for the Cincinnati Pike job. At this rate it was roughly estimated the cost would not exceed two or three dollars an acre for ten years. Property owners had previously believed the road might cost ten or twelve dollars an acre.

Commissioner John A. North told the protestors "a dozen and one-half eggs an acre per year" would pay for the road. Commissioner Herman Eavey said property owners had been helping to pay for paving roads in other sections of the county without having paved roads themselves. If the paving is done, the contract will probably be let this summer with work starting in the fall or next spring. Assessments would not start until 1926.

WILL SPEND SHORT TIME IN XENIA

O. E. Bradfute, Xenia, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, who will be one of nineteen delegates representing the United States at the International Institute of Agriculture Assembly, Rome, Italy, May 2 to 10, will arrive in Xenia Wednesday or Thursday from Chicago, where the offices of the Federation are located.

Mr. Bradfute will only be at his home here for a short time, leaving almost immediately for New York City, from where he will sail Saturday on the "President Roosevelt," for Rome. He expects to be away about six weeks.

BRINGING UP FATHER

THE HALF-TIME WIFE

By VIOLET DARE

I—A TARDY LOVER.

"So you're married to somebody else?"

"Yes," Suzanne's violet blue eyes were misty with tears, but somehow she managed the ghost of a smile. "Yes, I'm married to somebody else, Duncan. But you can't blame me, truly. I didn't suppose that you'd ever come back. I thought you didn't care for me any more."

"So you rushed out and married a man old enough to be your father, with money enough to give you everything in the world. Oh, Suzanne, I don't see how you could do it. You must have known that I'd come back. That quarrel of ours couldn't separate us forever, loving each other as we did."

Duncan Hale's voice trembled; he turned away from her for a moment, pretending to watch the dancers who swept past their table in a gay-colored throng. A wonderful place for his first meeting with Suzanne after two years, this smart dance club!

"But, Duncan, I thought it had separated us forever. I shall never forget that day at West Point, when we stood there looking down at the Hudson, and I gave your ring back to you. It seemed to me that my heart was broken, that I could never recover. The trip home was a dreadful thing; it seemed to me that I travelled for eternities, and yet wasn't going anywhere. For a long time I could hardly eat, couldn't sleep at all. Life just wasn't worth living without you."

"It seems to be worth living now," he commented bitterly, with a gesture toward the diamonds on her fingers and wrists.

"Not in the same way. Nothing's ever been the same since. I couldn't believe in people, after you'd shown me that I was wrong in believing in you. I dragged through one year of wretchedness, and then began to pull myself together. Six months ago I went to visit my aunt and met Geoffey. He isn't old enough to be my father, as you said a minute ago; he's quite a bit older than I am, but not that much! And he was so kind to me, tried so hard to do things I'd like. I couldn't help being drawn to him. When he asked me to marry him—well, at first it seemed as if I couldn't possibly do it; then, as I thought it over, I realized that perhaps I could. So just a month ago Geoffey and I were married."

"And he doesn't know anything about me, I suppose?"

"Yes, he does, though he doesn't know your name. I told him quite frankly about my going down to West Point to a dance, when I was at school, and you were a cadet there, and about our falling madly in love with each other at first sight. I told him how much I'd cared for you, even after that dreadful quarrel, and about how you'd gone off to the Philippines the day after we quarreled, when you graduated, and that I hadn't heard anything of you since. He asked me if I still cared for you, and I told him—"

"You told him what?" demanded the man, as his voice failed. He was leaning forward, his face pale, his hands clenched on the table's edge.

"I told him that I did," she answered, almost defiantly, throwing back her head and facing him. "It was the truth. I do care for you, Duncan, even more than I used to. I think. But I'm married to Geoffey, and I'm going to keep my vows. If you'd come back just a month sooner things would have been different. I'd have married you, I'd have gone anywhere in the world with you. But it's too late now."

"Having a good time, dear?"

"Well, dear—" another man's voice broke in on the strained silence that followed, a voice that was deep and kindly, but that held a hint of accustomed authority. "Oh, yes," Suzanne replied, almost too quickly. "Geoffey, I want you to meet an old friend of mine, Lieutenant Hale. He's just back from the Far East."

The two men shook hands, estimating each other as they did so. Both were tall; their eyes were on a level.

"I'll get her away from him yet," Hale vowed, as he turned away. "She's the one woman in the world for me, and I'll never give her up, not for any man."

Tomorrow—Difficulties Ahead.

FARM PROGRESS

PRIZE CORN STILL BEING RAISED BY GREENE COUNTIANS

J. S. Leaming and sons, of Sugar Grove Farm, one mile west of New Burlington, on R. F. D. Two, Waynesville, are still growing the famous Leaming seed corn, that has been grown by the Leaming family for ninety-nine years.

The seed corn has brought international prizes, for its high quality, including first prize at the Paris Exposition, two prizes at the Chicago World's Fair, one at the Philadelphia Exposition, and one at the St. Louis World's Fair.

The Leaming family has raised as high as 135 bushels of the corn to the acre. The ears are all of fine quality, and are as large at the end of the ear as at the middle.

GET IN THE "SAFETY ZONE"

Don't, whatever else you do, neglect your eyes. There's no reason why you should—we are accessible—anytime—from anywhere.

Let us show you our ability to thoroughly and expertly examine your eyes and supply the glasses that will give you more real JOY, COMFORT and SERVICE than you ever thought possible in a pair of glasses.
